GARDEN ISLE SOCIETY

Mrs. Gustav Hansen of Kekah cave a most enjoyable card party on Priday last, and bridge-whist was indulged in. It was a very lovely ifternoon and greatly enjoyed by all the guests. The game went on until 5 o'clock, when the highest score was made by Mrs. E. Omsted and Miss Elston, who drew for the first prize a very artistic nutball in burnt work, made by the hostess herself, and gotten by Miss Elston. Miss Cottrell got a box of candy, having the lowest score. Delicious refreshments were served and as dusk seemed to come far too soon that afternoon the guests were compelled to depart, for the hand of the law is long and spares no one if they have no lanterns after dark.

THE INVISBLE POINT

It was an awfully old joke, but the merican thought it might cause his English friend to generate a smile. 'Just before I sailed for Liverpool.' said the American, "I dreamed that I was dead, and the heat woke me up." "So?" rejoined the Englishman, seriously. "The weather must be beastly hot in America."

DROWNING THE SOUND

The visitors found the little girl singing at the dining-room window. "You enjoy singing?" they asked 'Not particularly," she responded raising her voice to a high pitch. Then who do you sing?" "Why, pa is eating corn off the cob."
